FOURTH TRANSNATIONAL MEETING

Digital Roadmap for designing online interactive content

The last transnational project meeting was held on 29–30 of May 2023 in Warsaw, Poland at Warsaw University of Life Sciences – SGGW. Our project team agreed the last activities that should be done before the closure of the iSURVIVE project: final reports preparation, evidences from pilot training, evaluation and recommendations. Finalization of all project results which will be available to download from the project website and all dissemination activities were discussed. During the pilot and other meetings it can be stated that the developed tools are very positively received and are useful, helpful and interesting for teachers conducting online classes.

WHAT'S NEXT....

Partner organizations focused on the maintenance of iSURVIVE outputs, which will be upheld at least for five years after the closure of the project. Our consortium concluded that the project can be concerned as success. A publication in one of the e-learning magazines is in preparation. We would like to thank for your involvement and active participation in the iSURVIVE lifecycle.
